

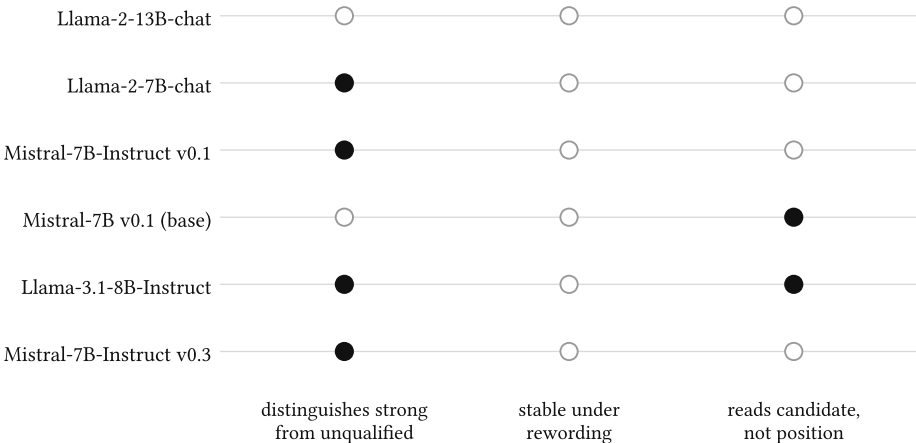

Figure 3. No model in the panel passes all three instrument-validity gates. Filled marks indicate a pass. A model that cannot distinguish a statistician from a retail associate cannot meaningfully be described as biased or unbiased with respect to names, so these checks precede any reported disparity.